Dear Ms McDaid,

I am writing to extend my heartfelt congratulations to you and the entire team at St Agnes School on your outstanding Ofsted report. It is truly impressive to see the exceptional standards and achievements highlighted throughout the report.

St Agnes is undoubtedly a beacon of excellence in nurturing and supporting pupils to achieve their very best across all aspects of school life. The high expectations and aspirations set by your leadership team are reflected in the positive attitudes and enthusiastic engagement of the pupils. The commitment to inclusivity and ensuring all pupils access the ambitious curriculum is commendable.

I was particularly impressed by the comprehensive approach towards pupils' personal development, which includes fostering a respectful and safe environment, promoting responsible citizenship, and instilling a love for learning and reading. The dedication to identifying and swiftly supporting pupils with SEND, as well as the proactive measures to address issues like bullying, demonstrates a genuine commitment to every child's well-being and success.

The rich curriculum and varied opportunities for pupils to explore their interests and talents through clubs, visits, and engaging activities are truly inspiring. It's evident that St Agnes not only focuses on academic excellence but also on building character, instilling values, and preparing pupils to be active and engaged members of the community.

The collaborative efforts of the staff, leadership team, governors, and supportive parents are clearly instrumental in the school's success. The positive feedback from parents underscores the strong partnership between home and school, essential for providing a holistic and enriching educational experience.

Once again, congratulations on this well-deserved recognition of excellence. Please thank everybody involved at the School for all that they are doing to provide the students with such a well-rounded, Catholic Education.

Yours sincerely,
