4. Summary of how the school meets the needs of children with SEN and disabilities	Referenced in law/guidance
At St. Agnes Roman Catholic Primary School we are committed to providing a high quality education for all pupils, including those identified as having SEND needs. All pupils are entitled to a broad and balanced academic and social curriculum which is accessible to them and should be fully included in all aspects of school life. We believe that all children should be equally valued in school and we strive to eliminate prejudice and discrimination and to develop an environment where all children can reach their full potential. The staff and Governing Body fulfils its statutory duty towards pupils with SEN or disabilities in accordance with the guidance set out in the Children and Families Act 2014 and the SEN Code of Practice. In particular, the governing body committee are responsible for ensuring that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • arrangements are in place in school to support pupils with medical conditions • an SEND information report is published annually In addition, our governing body works with the SENCO and Headteacher in determining the strategic development of SEND policy and provision, including establishing a clear picture of the progress made by pupils and the resources available in the school. The governing body also ensures that the school meets its responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010 with regard to admissions, reasonable adjustments and access arrangements and publishes information about this annually. SEND support takes the form of a four part cycle: assess, plan, do and review. The effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil’s progress will be reviewed on a half termly basis. Pupil progress meeting are used to evaluate the effectiveness of any SEND support provided. This is timed to co-incide with parents’ evenings and discussions about expected outcomes from the support including planned next steps.	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 5
5. How does the school identify children’s special educational needs	Referenced in law/guidance
We aim to identify children’s special educational needs (SEN) as early as possible, so that the child achieves the best possible outcomes. A pupil will be identified with SEND where their learning difficulty or disability calls for special educational provision. That is provision which is different from or additional to that normally available to pupils of the same age. Children may have one or more broad areas of special educational need: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communication and interaction – including speech and language difficulties and autism • Cognition and learning – including developmental delay and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia. • Social, emotional and mental health difficulties – including difficulties with behaviour, attention deficit hyperactive disorder, an attachment disorder or anxiety. • Sensory and/or physical needs- including visual and hearing impairment, dyspraxia, cerebral palsy and other physical disabilities or medical conditions which affect a child’s learning. 	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 5

Each pupil's current skills and level of attainment are assessed on entry to the school. From then on, assessments of progress for all pupils is measured at strategic points in the year as well as an ongoing day to day summative assessments. These will seek to identify pupils making less than expected progress given their age and individual circumstances. Progress may: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline. • fail to match or better the child's previous rate of progress • widen the attainment gap between the child and their peers High quality teaching will target the pupil's area of weakness. In identifying a child as needing SEND support, the class teacher, working with the SENCO, will carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs including the individual's development in comparison to their peers and national data. We recognise that parents know their children best and listen and understand when parents express concerns about their child's development. We also listen and address any concerns raised by pupils themselves. Where it is decided to provide a pupil with SEND support the decision will be recorded in school records and parents are consulted about the desired long term and short term outcomes. Difficulties related solely to limitations in English as an additional language are not SEND. Persistent disruptive or withdrawn behaviours do not necessarily mean that a pupil has SEND but they may need additional provision within school.
6. How does the school teach and support children with SEN?	Referenced in law/guidance
We endeavour to set high expectations for all pupils whatever their prior attainment, using assessment to set targets. We endeavour to deliver high quality teaching that is differentiated and personalised and meets the individual needs of the majority of pupils. Some pupils need educational provision that is additional to or different from this and we use our best endeavours to ensure that such provision is made for those who need it. This may include additional teacher or TA support, provision of appropriate resources or short term tailored interventions. This type of support is regularly evaluated for impact. The quality of teaching for pupils with SEND, and the progress made by pupils, is a core part of the school's performance management arrangements and its approach to professional development for all teaching and support staff	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 7
7. How will the curriculum and learning environment be matched to the child's needs?	Referenced in law/guidance
All pupils have access to a broad and balanced curriculum, adapted or made accessible for pupils with SEND. Lessons are planned to address potential areas of difficulty and to remove barriers to pupil achievement through careful differentiation. We take appropriate steps to enable pupils to develop, learn, participate and achieve the best possible outcomes irrespective of whether that is through reasonable adjustments for a disabled child or special provision for a child with SEND. We have high expectations for all and will look at the child's level of achievement and see what support they need to make good progress and reach their potential. Information about the school's curriculum is on the school website	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 8

8. How are parents and carers involved in reviewing children’s progress and planning support?	Referenced in law/guidance

10. How does the school prepare and support children to transfer to a new school/ college or the next stage of education and life?	Referenced in law/guidance
The majority of pupils with SEN or disabilities, with the right support, can find work, be supported to live independently, and participate in their community. We encourage these ambitions right from the start. Our SEND support includes planning and preparation for the transitions between phases of education, key stages, year groups and preparation for adult life. We will share the knowledge we have as part of this process. We support pupils so that they are included in social groups and develop friendships. This is particularly important when pupils are transferring from one phase of education to another. Strategies include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Liaison with SENCos in transition meetings • Enhanced transition visits • Opportunities to meet parents • Consideration of flexible provision 	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 6

11.What training do school staff have?	Referenced in law/guidance
The school has a targeted CPD programme which regularly and carefully reviews the quality of teaching for all pupils, including those at risk of underachievement. This includes, identifying particular areas of need in the school, reviewing, and improving, teachers' understanding of strategies to identify and support vulnerable pupils and their knowledge of the SEND most frequently encountered. Where interventions are required, we ensure staff have sufficient skills and knowledge to deliver the intervention effectively. We have a school Speech and Language therapist who provides expert guidance, support and training programmes for teachers and teaching assistants to help ensure the best provision for pupils. When we plan support for a child, we think about the knowledge and skills their teachers and support staff will need. If necessary, we plan training for the staff member or arrange an INSET training day All our class teachers are qualified teachers. Our SENCOs Louise Wilcox and Brid McDaid have the National Award in Special Educational Needs Co-ordination (Jan 2018) (July 2020) Our teaching assistants have a range of qualifications including the HLTA NVQ Levels 2 and 3 Autism specialist training, maths and English intervention qualifications., mental health training (ongoing), behaviour management.	SEND CoP 6.79 bullet 9

We regularly and carefully review the quality of teaching for all pupils to make sure no-one under achieves. We look at whether our teaching and programmes of support have made a difference. We use information systems to monitor the progress and development of all pupils. This helps us to develop the use of interventions that are effective and to remove those that are less so. We have a new Provision mapping tracking system to help manage and identify the success of interventions. We also invite parents to provide feedback at meetings, through attending parent forums and through the Ofsted parent view website. https://parentview.ofsted.gov.uk/ EYFS: well below on entry, below national for achieving a good level of development Phonics by the end of Y2 2018: 28/30 pupils reached Expected. 1 SEN pupil did not reach expected level. KS1: SEN achieved below expected and below national KS2: Attainment in KS2 for SEN pupils with EHC Plan and SEN pupils was below others in the school and below all National.
