

My list of things 'to do'

In the chapter, Miss Dawson had a list of things which she had for the children to do.

Write your own list of things to do. These could be things you have to do today, tomorrow or for the week.

You can decide what your list is going to be for.

My 'To Do' list

Check your list.
Have you missed anything?

Capital letters and full stops

Read part of the story below.

- Put the full stops in the correct places. There are 4 missing.
- Put the commas in the correct places. There are 2 missing.
- Put a circle around ten words which should have a capital letter.

the week couldn't go fast enough as the children all looked forward to friday afternoon and a visit to the theatre miss dawson had sent a letter home to ask for any adult helpers to go along on the afternoon too they were going to need as much help as possible with the show thursday afternoon came and there was a buzz of excitement in the classroom mr jones was just wondering how he was going to keep the children busy working until friday afternoon when miss dawson the headteacher came into the classroom

Tick the correct sentence

Read the sentences below, tick the sentence which you think is correct?

The children all looked forward to Thursday afternoon.

The children all looked forward to Friday afternoon.

The children all looked forward to Friday morning.

Miss Dawson was an adult helper.

Miss Dawson was the class teacher.

Miss Dawson was the headteacher.

Miss Dawson started to read from a long list on a piece of paper.

Miss Dawson started to read a story to Class Two.

Miss Dawson started to read a comic.

Miss Dawson asked the children to keep busy.

Miss Dawson asked the children if they liked going to the theatre.

Miss Dawson asked the children if they were up for a challenge.