Dear Year 2 (soon to be year 3),
My Name is Mr Crow and guess what? I will be your class teacher next year! I am very excited to be working with you and cannot wait to get you busy learning! What are your names?

First, and this is rather an important bit, let me tell you a bit about me now that you know my name!

I was born in London, on the 19th October in East London. I am  $\frac{3}{4}$  Italian and  $\frac{1}{4}$  English. Furthermore, my favourite colour is purple. What are your favourite colours?

Additionally, I absolutely love the taste of Thai food, but not hot curries! I also love Chinese food. What are your favourite dishes?

During the school day, I love teaching writing, as well as science! What are your favourite subjects?

Finally, I would love to know the following: Do you have any funny stories you can share with me?

Please reply to me via a letter! I cannot wait to read them! Maybe you could even draw me an accurate picture of yourself? I would like that!

Hugs,
Mr Crow x
